

How to Leave a Gift to JR Whippet Rescue CIO in your Will

Types of gifts that can be left in your will:

Residuary

A residuary gift is a share of your estate. Your estate refers to everything you owned, including money in your bank account, investments, and physical belongings such as your property and furnishings. You can leave a specific percentage of the value of your estate after any taxes or costs have been subtracted.

Pecuniary

A pecuniary gift is a fixed amount of money.

Specific

These are particular items, such as a house, stocks and shares or jewellery. Anything that's of financial value to you, JR Whippet Rescue would sell these items to raise as much funds as possible.

Trusts

If you think you would like to create a trust in your will we recommend speaking to your solicitor. The most common trusts are where a supporter gives a friend or relative the opportunity to live in their house for the rest of their life - with JR Whippet Rescue receiving the house once the friend or relative has died. There are, however, many other uses for trusts.

When writing or updating your will

When writing or updating your will, we would recommend using a solicitor or a professional will writer. This is because mistakes in your will can cause a lot of stress and expense for your family and beneficiaries. It doesn't have to be expensive, and you can look around for different quotes to get a good deal.

If you need to look for a reputable solicitor the following will be able to help:

In England and Wales, go to lawsociety.org.uk, or call 020 7242 1222.

In Scotland, contact the Law Society of Scotland at lawscot.org.uk, or call 013 1226 7411.

The most important bits of information to include are our name and registered charity number:

JR Whippet Rescue CIO

Registered Charity in England and Wales: 1215071
